

Center for Women and Business (CWB) at Bentley Women's Leadership Program

Leadership and Communication

Gender Equity Issues and Workplace Dynamics

Real-World Perspectives

Network of Future Women Leaders

Participate in forums that enhance communications competencies and foster confidence and an understanding of inclusive leadership.

Participate in forums that explore critical issues and develop strategies for self-advocacy and leadership advancement.

Connect with professionals from CWB Corporate Partners who provide insight and guidance on workplace dynamics and career development.

Share experiences and reflections with other women on the path to leadership.

- Y
E
A
R
1
- Exploration of Leadership Workshop
 - The Value of Mentorship

- Unconscious Bias
- Closing the Gender Confidence Gap

- One corporate mentorship meeting spring semester
- One corporate visit spring semester

- Orientation
- End-of-year community event

- Y
E
A
R
2
AND
Y
E
A
R
3
- One or more forums each year building leadership and communications skills
 - Strengths-based leadership assessment workshop
 - Leadership experience plan, based on strengths
 - Leadership experience

- One or more forums each year addressing gender equity or workplace dynamics
- Weekend retreat: Intergroup Dialogue: Gender

- One corporate mentorship meeting or corporate visit each semester
- Potential for mentor follow-up and questions
- Opportunities to attend CWB-sponsored corporate events on campus

- Fall semester community event
- End-of-year community event
- Opportunities to attend related events on campus
- Opportunities to attend related local conferences

Two related elective courses taken any time during the program

- Y
E
A
R
4
- One or more forums building leadership and communications skills
 - Student final presentation

- One or more forums addressing gender equity or workplace dynamics

- One corporate mentorship meeting or corporate visit fall semester

- Fall semester community event
- Certificate presentation

Leadership journal reflective essay after each experience throughout the program