ILLINOIS CPA SOCIETY®

Good morning,

The Illinois CPA Society warmly welcomes you to its 2017 Diversity Summit: Leaders Championing Change. Diversity and inclusion continue to be challenges virtually all organizations face.

Today's program includes opportunities for you to dig deep about significant issues, ignite critical conversations, and seek decisive actions toward sustainable solutions. You'll learn from emerging professionals and expert thought leaders on how to advance diversity in the profession. The facilitated breakout sessions are meant to be interactive and I encourage you to be vocal and courageous in contributing to these important discussions.

I appreciate that you have decided to join us today as a sign of your dedication to enhancing the value of the CPA profession. Together, and only together, can we make progress on this critical issue. Thank you again for taking the time to participate!

Sincerely,

Todd M. Shapiro
President & CEO, Illinois CPA Society
